

Role and Qualifications as Defined by the SIR Bylaws and Executive Council

SIR Councilors-at-Large are voting members of the SIR Executive Council. The Executive Council is the chief governing and policy-making body of SIR. The Council is empowered to carry out the business of the Society and is responsible for fiduciary oversight. It is responsible for overseeing and transacting the business necessary to achieve SIR's goals and to fulfill its mission. The position of Councilor-at-Large is an elected position.

Qualifications (As approved by the SIR Executive Council February 28, 2007.)

- Shall have been an active member or fellow in good standing for at least three years
- Shall have shown commitment to the Society by active service on an SIR committee or task force as a member or chair for a minimum of three years
- Shall be actively practicing interventional radiology or have practiced a minimum of 10 years
- Shall have experience and/or interest in the area of Council work for the specific Council position

Specific Duties of the Position

- Manages special projects as requested by the Operations Committee or Executive Council.
- Represents SIR at meetings as requested by the Operations Committee or Executive Council.
- Provides liaison to divisions and committees as requested.

Election and Term in Office

The term of a Councilor-at-Large is three years. Councilors-at-Large are eligible for election to one additional three-year term. Council terms begin at the adjournment of the Annual Members' Business Meeting.

Time Commitment

The Councilor-at-Large is expected to devote the necessary time for Society business during his/her term. The Councilor-at-Large is expected to attend three in-person Executive Council meetings a year, the Annual Members' Business Meeting, at least one Operations Committee call, and other meetings and conference calls as necessary.

Compensation/Reimbursement

The Councilor-at-Large receives no compensation for serving. Travel expenses for approved SIR travel are reimbursed per the SIR Travel Policy.

Responsibilities of All Executive Council Members

- Serve as strategic leader who understands the SIR mission, vision, and can link the activities with the strategic goals.
- Serve as the primary contact for Society and Foundation inquiries relating to their division or area expertise.

- Be willing and able to devote the necessary time throughout the entire appointed term of service for Society business.
- Possess the highest ethical standards and be recognized and respected by peers as a leader in interventional radiology.
- Be free of any significant conflict of interest that would prevent him/her from serving objectively, and disclose all conflicts in advance.
- Have an email address and web access so committee business can be conducted virtually.
- Possess the highest ethical standards and be recognized and respected by peers as a leader in interventional radiology.
- Adhere to the SIR's Conflict of Interest, Ethics, Fiduciary, and Antitrust Policies.
